Beyond Vision drone

In recent years, demand for drones in Japan is increased in particularly for advanced geospatial applications and defense-related missions. To meet these evolving needs, AirMobility Inc. (Minato-ku, Tokyo, Japan; President & CEO: Hisashi Asai) is proud to support Beyond Vision, a leading Portuguese drone manufacturer, in introducing their cutting-edge aircraft to the Japanese market.

Beyond Vision's drones are known for their exceptional versatility, with modular designs that allow for a wide range of payloads — ideal for surveying, inspection, and critical defense operations. Their proven performance demonstrates their capability to serve industries such as military, geospatial, and infrastructure development.

Leveraging our extensive Japanese network and deep relationships across key sectors, AirMobility has carefully evaluated global drone technologies. We are confident that Beyond Vision's innovative solutions will address the growing demand for high-performance, multi-role drones in Japan. Together, we aim to accelerate the adoption of these advanced systems to support national security, geospatial intelligence, and industrial innovation.
